¹Annual Percentage Yield (APY) 3.60% with an Interest Rate of 3.54% is accurate as of 12/11/25. To be eligible for the CD Relationship Rate APY, customers must own a personal QNB checking account in good standing, at the time of CD account opening. APY assumes interest remains on deposit for the entire term. Penalty fees may apply for early withdrawal. Fees may reduce earnings. $500 minimum deposit is required to open a CD account and to obtain the APY ($100 minimum for QuinBy's CDs). $250,000 maximum deposit limit applies. At maturity, CDs are automatically renewable to a non-promotional 6-month term at the prevailing APY in effect at that time. Checking opening is subject to approval. The offer is available to consumers and excludes IRA, business, trust, and municipal accounts. Limited time offer: we reserve the right to cancel this promotion at any time without notice.

HOW GARDENERS SURVIVE WINTER BREAK

Are you missing the feel of putting your hands in the soil, pulling out the noxious weeds and planting new life that will encourage pollinators and birds, and eventually be beautiful? Well, Penny Power has a cure for that. It starts with reading Carol’s Winter Series articles which will, without a doubt, inspire you to do copious amounts of further reading and research to find the best plants for birds and pollinators for your yard. Whether you need trees, shrubs, or flowers, this down-time forced upon us by winter is the perfect time to consider your yard from a bird’s perspective. It’s never too early to make plans and dream about the spectacular gardens we will create (barring drought and hungry critters). Thank you, Carol, for your inspiring articles, knowledgeable insight and helping all us gardeners use our winter break productively.

GARDEN TIPS

The “Buzz” about Native Plants

By Carol Schroding,
Gardening Enthusiast and former owner of Northeast Native Perennials

Winter Series: Part I: What are “Soft Landings?”

Soft Landings are about creating a friendly environment under keystone trees and other appropriate native trees, with diverse native plantings, for insect larvae that drop to the ground to complete their life cycle either in the leaf litter or in the ground. (Keystone trees are trees that support a disproportionately high number of beneficial insect, moth and butterfly species.) Doug Tallamy of the University of Delaware and his team have found that 14% of native plants support 90% of insect species! Regularly mowed turf grass beneath these trees does not provide an appropriate environment for these insects and also compacts the soil.

Creating soft landings under your trees for the insects makes a beautiful addition to your garden, reduces mowing area, builds healthy soil and provides additional pollen and nectar for the pollinators. If you already have plants growing beneath your trees, remove non-native and invasive plants and replace them with new native plants. If you have turf grass under your trees, do not dig it out as you may injure the tree roots. Instead, in the fall, place a 4–6-inch layer of leaves and or arborist chips/mulch over the area. This should kill the grass, and your area should be ready for planting in the spring. Some people use cardboard, however much of the cardboard contains harmful chemicals that we don’t want to put into the environment. Do not add soil as this could smother your tree. The idea is to add organic matter that will break down and improve the soil.

In the next two articles, we will discuss what keystone trees and plants are, and what plants are great for your “soft landing” areas. Happy winter dreaming!

"The British celebrate Boxing Day on December 26th. I celebrate it every time we get a package!"

BORGER'S RARE COINS & FINE JEWELRY

U.S. Mint Proof American Silver Eagle Dollar Coin Contest

Another fantastic prize this week -- a U.S. Mint Proof American Silver Eagle Dollar coin, featuring Lady Liberty, in its original government packaging (retail value $120.00) from Borger's Rare Coins & Fine Jewelry. The American Silver Eagle Dollar Coin was first minted in 1986 and contains one troy ounce of pure silver. Borger's Rare Coins & Fine Jewelry is a family run business with expertise in numismatics and precious metals. They are a full-service shop that buys and sells U.S. and foreign gold and silver coins, bullion, currency, medals, tokens, jewelry, diamonds, and collectibles. This week's winner will need to pick up their U.S. Mint Proof American Silver Eagle Dollar coin at Borger's Rare Coins & Fine Jewelry shop at 237 E. High Street in Hellertown. But first, you will need to skate to the top of the list -- or rather, find the 10 ice skaters hidden throughout our ads. Your correct entry will be placed into a drawing for the American Silver Eagle Dollar coin from Borger's Rare Coins & Fine Jewelry. Enjoy gliding gracefully through the ads but don't take a tumble. Good Luck!

PET OF THE WEEK

LUCY

Introducing Lucy!
The tuxedo gal with style, spunk, and plenty of purr-sonality!

Lucy has just finished raising her adorable kittens, and now it's her turn to enjoy being a carefree cat again. She looks and acts like a kitten herself, in the best way – she's confident, playful, and always ready to chase a toy or zoom through the room just for the fun of it! She will certainly keep you entertained.

This charming, 5-year-old girl loves attention and will happily greet you for pets and playtime. She's wonderfully social and enjoys being part of the action. Once she's finished playing, she will hop right up and lie on top of you and give you headbutts to request pets. Her foster mom calls this her "love steamroller mode." She loves to snuggle on her foster mom's lap or chest, while purring away.

Lucy's not a fan of other cats and will do best as the star of her own show.

If you're looking for a confident, affectionate, and delightfully spirited companion, Lucy's ready to trade motherhood for mischief – and she's dressed for the occasion in her perfect tuxedo!

To meet Lucy, go to straycatblues.org or call 215-631-1851. Stray Cat Blues is a 501(c)(3) non-profit that's been rescuing area cats for more than 25 years. In addition to fostering and adopting friendly cats and kittens, we Trap, Neuter and Return (TNR) feral cats.
