March 21st is National Quilting Day!

Quilting has been both a necessity and a popular hobby across the years. The earliest known evidence of quilting is an ancient Egyptian carving in the British Museum depicting a pharaoh wearing a quilted mantle. Today's quilters are keeping an ancient art form alive. Most early American quilts were created with limited resources and for practical purposes. Many layers "sandwiched" together created a thicker, warmer covering. Hand-made quilts are very labor intensive and so evolved the social aspect of quilting in the form of the quilting bee. Early patterns reflected their world, told stories and became the familiar staples of modern quilts.

Every year, on the third Saturday of March, quilters across the world come together to celebrate National Quilting Day - a day dedicated to the love of quilting, the creativity it fosters and the community it builds.

SELL YOUR COINS to a collector, not a dealer. Don't sell your coins for scrap value. I am a private collector seeking quality coins for my personal display. Unlike shops that flip everything for profit, I collect for passion and only resell duplicates to fund upgrades. I can offer true market value for the right pieces. For safety and convenience, I meet all sellers at a public place such as a coffee shop. Contact Mark 610-282-1776.

GARDEN TIPS

The "Buzz" about Native Plants

By Carol Schroding,
Gardening Enthusiast and former owner of Northeast Native Perennials

Gardening with Deer, Part II

What beautiful native perennials can you grow that may not appeal to the deer?

Let's start with some spring bloomers. A couple of earlier bloomers that are usually not palatable to deer are Dutchman's Breeches (Dicentra cucullaria), Virginia Bluebells (Mertensia virginica), Wild Geranium (Geranium maculatum), and Dwarf Crested Iris (Iris cristata). Some great spring ground covers are Fernleaf Phacelia (Phacelia bipinnatifida), Wood Poppy (Stylophorum diphylllum) and native ginger such as Canadian Wild Ginger (Asarum canadense). Adding some Lady Fern (Athyrium filix-femina), Sedges (Carex species) and Jack-in-the-Pulpit (Arisaema triphyllum) for form and structure rounds out the palette.

As early summer rolls around, the Narrowleaf Bluestar (Amsonia hubrechtii) and the Eastern Bluestar (Amsonia tabernaemontana) begin their beautiful blue star-shaped blooms. The Amsonias contain a bitter milky sap which the deer find unpleasant. Wild Indigo (Baptisia species) also contain bitter compounds and a tough fuzzy texture the deer find unpalatable, and come in white, yellow and blue to purple that all pair beautifully with the Bluestar. Blue-eyed Grass has a fragrance which discourages deer and because of its diminutive size, is perfect for the front of a border. Beardtongue (Penstemon digitalis) and Sundrops (Oenothera fruticosa) decorate the late spring garden with their pale pink and sunny yellow blooms respectively. The deer will sometimes browse these, but they are not their favorites. I usually give them a little spray with my mint scented deer repellent to be sure.

A mid-summer workhorse and deer resistant bloomer in the pollinator garden is the Whorled Tickseed (Coreopsis verticillata). It has a bitter taste and rough texture that is not appealing to the deer. Butterfly Weed (Asclepias tuberosa) contains a toxic latex substance that deer do not like, as do other members of the Milkweed family. These two planted next to the lavender flowers of Anise Hyssop (Agastache foeniculum) are a beautiful combination. Anise Hyssop has a strong fragrance and bitter taste making it deer resistant.

Next time: More beautiful deer-resistant native plants!

The Xerces Society for Invertebrate Conservation

Ninety-five to ninety-seven percent of all animals on Earth are invertebrates.

Artist's rendition of the now-extinct Xerces blue butterfly by Noel Leas.

An international nonprofit organization that protects the natural world through the conservation of invertebrates and their habitats.
xerces.org

Our name (which is pronounced Zer-sees) comes from the now-extinct Xerces blue butterfly (Glaucopsyche xerces), the first butterfly known to go extinct in North America as a result of human activities. The Xerces blue's habitat was destroyed by development in the sand dunes of San Francisco, and the species was declared extinct by the 1940s.

PET OF THE WEEK

Meet Angel!
Angel is a mixed-breed girl with the kind of gentle, old-soul presence that instantly puts you at ease. True to her name, she's calm, polite, and wonderfully easy to be around...one of those dogs who quietly steals your heart without trying. Angel does take daily thyroid medication, which she handles like a pro as part of her regular routine.

She's laid-back and content just being near her people, making her an ideal companion for a home that values peaceful moments, cozy routines, and steady companionship.

Our senior adoption fee is $200 (not including tax), which means each animal is fixed, up to date on core vaccines, microchipped, kept on monthly preventions, and dewormed. If you are interested in adopting any of our animals, please fill out an application on our website: lastchanceranch.org. PA Kennel License #4518

Last Chance Ranch® (LCR) provides a safe refuge for abused, unwanted or neglected animals. Last Chance Ranch® (LCR) is a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization dedicated to rescuing and rehabilitating equines, farm animals, and domestic companion animals. LCR also offers follow-up programs for adopters, educational seminars, and clinics. Learn more at lastchanceranch.org.

Hooraay! Spring is finally here! And what better way to celebrate spring than to do some shopping at Kospia Farms. This week's winner will receive a $25 gift card to Kospia Farms, 2288 State Street, Alburdis, where you will find a wide and wonderful array of annuals, perennials, ornamental trees, flowering shrubs & trees, fruit trees, shade trees, evergreens and more. Plus seasonal products including Easter flowers. Kospia also has beautiful furniture and outdoor living accessories and even received Penny Power's Readers' Choice award for Best Outdoor Furniture. A visit to Kospia with a stroll through their 26-acre working farm and variety of buildings featuring local artists and unique products may be just what you need to shake off the last of those winter blues. As the warm weather approaches, it's time to start thinking about getting outside and playing some baseball, or maybe just enjoying the weather while you watch the kids play baseball. Slide through and write the names of the ads where the 10 baseballs are hidden on the lines below. Your correct entry will be entered into the drawing for the $25 Kospia Farms gift card. Keep your eyes on the prize and don't strike out. Good Luck!
