GARDEN TIPS

The "Buzz" about Native Plants

By Carol Schroding,
Gardening Enthusiast and former owner of Northeast Native Perennials

Companion Pairing with Native Plants

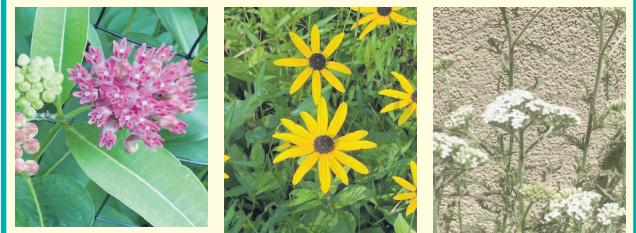

Companion planting is the ancient practice of placing mutually beneficial plants together in the garden to improve plant health and productivity. It is commonly thought of as being used in vegetable gardens and crop production, and for sure, using native plants as companions for crops is highly beneficial! Native plants are naturally adapted to collectively flourish in their own ecosystem. So, choose native plants no matter what you are pairing.

What are the benefits of companion planting? Whether you are doing it to benefit vegetable or crop planting or to benefit flower gardens in your landscape, it will improve soil health, minimize pest issues, attract pollinators and boost biodiversity. Some plants repel insects while others draw in helpful predators to control bad bugs. An example of this would be Yarrow (Achillea millefolium) which draws ladybugs and lacewings that consume aphids and other damaging pests. Since aphids seem to love Milkweed, Yarrow is a great companion plant for the Milkweed species.

Pairings of plants generally consider root depth, light needs, bloom times and compatibility. Some other companions for Milkweed species might be Wild Bee Balm (Monarda fistulosa), Goldenrod (Solidago sp.), & Joe Pye Weed (Eutrochium sp.). All support pollinators such as butterflies and bees, and blooms are staggered providing a continuous source of nectar.

Let's consider Purple Coneflower (Echinacea purpurea). A classic pairing is Black-eyed Susan with similar soil and sunlight needs, as well as Bee Balm (Monarda sp.), Goldenrod (Solidago sp.) and Blazing Star (Liatris sp.). All attract pollinators, and bloom times vary from early summer through fall.

Next time: More native companion pairings!

BRING YOUR FRIENDS!

RICHLAND TOWNSHIP FIRE & RESCUE
64 Shelly Road, Quakertown, PA 18951

Our very dear friends at Kospia Farms believe that some of the best home improvements don't require four walls. For instance, how about a "destination" in your own backyard? Sounds lovely. And Kospia can help you make your dream a reality. Kospia Farms sells a wide variety of wonderful locally grown plants, premium outdoor furniture, fire pits, locally made artisan crafts and décor. They also provide landscaping solutions and help homeowners create outdoor spaces that feel like an escape. We probably all have a little something we'd like to improve in our yards. A $25 gift card to Kospia Farms could be a great first step to planning your "escape." This is such an exciting and uniting time for our country as we all join together to celebrate America's 250th birthday. And who doesn't love birthday cake – especially a red, white and blue one? So let's create a winning recipe as you sift through all these nice Penny Power advertisers to find the 10 pieces of America's birthday cake. Serve up the names of the companies where the ads appear on the lines below. Your correct entry will be entered into a drawing for a $25 gift card to Kospia Farms. No baking required, just enjoy the celebrations! Good Luck!

QUAKERTOWN ROTARY CLUB CELEBRATES PRIOR YEAR ACCOMPLISHMENTS AND NEW LEADERSHIP

Quakertown Rotary Club members gathered together to reflect on our accomplishments of the past year and welcome new leadership for the new year. Under the dedicated and capable leadership of Sue Deily (right), Club volunteers have worked successfully to support a number of community initiatives designed to further our mission of service to the Quakertown Community. The Quakertown Rotary Club was organized in 1924 and was the first service club in Quakertown. Over 100 years later, the Club continues to be an active and vibrant organization whose volunteer members work together to provide help when we see a need in our community. As the Rotary year ends, the Club welcomes new president, Jessica Althouse. Jessica has been an active Rotarian for over 3 years. The Club looks forward to continuing our mission serving our community. While every club needs a strong and dedicated leader, both Sue and Jessica echoed the same sentiment that the Quakertown Rotary Club is only as good as its volunteers. If you are interested in volunteering or learning more, visit Rotary Club of Quakertown.

PREPARE YOUR DOG FOR FIREWORKS

According to experts, July 5th ranks as the highest shelter intake day for dogs across the United States. For some dogs, fireworks noise and the bright flashes can be terrifying causing them to panic and bolt from their familiar yard, even breaking through a fence. If you're not sure how your dog handles fireworks, experts advise keep your dog inside and be cautious if you have to go in or out. If your dog must go out, it is suggested to keep him or her on a leash.

THUMBS DOWN

To the nasty grandmother who was out with her husband and two grandkids at mini golf on Wednesday. I saw how you rolled your eyes spoke exasperatedly about her, used your hand like a claw to move her then gestured at her with the full length of your golf club with the nastiest of expressions just to impress your friends you were speaking to. For shame. She looked no older than 5. How dare you make a child feel so small and self conscious that she won't even look at you? Your adult emotions do not belong to that baby. Grow up. I'm happy something ate the peas in the garden you were talking about.

PET OF THE WEEK

CHLOE

Meet Chloe!

Chloe was rescued over a year ago from a makeshift outdoor enclosure, a small space that was open to the elements and stuffed with other cats. So it makes sense that trusting people didn't come easily. When she first arrived in foster care, she preferred the company of other cats and kept her distance from humans. Her foster family gave her the one thing she needed most: time.

Then, almost a year later, something wonderful happened. One day, Chloe randomly decided she was ready. She started rubbing against legs and begging for pets! The shy girl who once watched from a distance suddenly started asking for pets, exploring the house, and seeking out attention. It was as if she finally realized she was safe. Today, Chloe loves being around other animals and gains confidence from their companionship. She's discovered how much fun it is to be part of a family and is enjoying all the love she's missed out on. Chloe is looking for a patient, understanding home that will continue to let her grow at her own pace. In return, you'll get the privilege of watching a truly special cat continue her journey from survivor to beloved companion. There's nothing quite like earning the trust of a cat like Chloe—and once you do, it's pure magic.

To meet Chloe, go to straycatblues.org or call 215-631-1851. Stray Cat Blues is a 501(c)(3) non-profit that's been rescuing area cats for more than 25 years. In addition to fostering and adopting friendly cats and kittens, we Trap, Neuter and Return (TNR) feral cats.

Even if you are not able to adopt right now, please share our Pet of the Week with anyone who may be considering adding a new family member. There are so many wonderful pets who need a loving family to call their own.

PRAYER TO THE BLESSED Virgin (never known to fail). Oh, most beautiful Flower of Mt. Carmel, Fruitful Vine, Splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. Oh, Star of the Sea, help me and show me, herein you are my mother. Oh, Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth! I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me in this necessity. There are none that can withstand Your power. Oh, show me herein you are my mother. Oh, Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse in Thee. (Three times.) Holy Mother I place this cause in your hands. (Three times.) Holy Spirit, you who solve all problems, light all roads so that I can attain my goal. You who gave me the divine gift to forgive and forget all evil against me and that in all instances, in my life you are with me. I want in the short prayer to thank you for all things as you confirm once again that I never want to be separated from You in eternal glory. Thank You for Your mercy towards me and mine. The person must say this prayer 3 consecutive days. After 3 days, the request will be granted. This prayer must be published after the favor is granted. S.M.
